Our school is looking to appoint inspired and motivated teachers for September 2024.

At Churchfields Infants' we firmly believe that we should all be "Growing Together Every Day in Every Way", which is why this stands at the heart of all that we do.

Churchfields Infants' is a thriving and happy 4-form entry community school situated in South Woodford in the London Borough of Redbridge. We have a strong staff team and are a well-resourced school. Our curriculum is constantly reviewed to meet the needs of our children alongside innovative teaching, with a focus on philosophy and Values Based Education. We have achieved the Inclusion Quality Mark at Flagship standard and we are proud to include everyone in all we do.

The well-being of our staff and children is paramount. To successfully enable children to learn they need to be happy. In order for them to thrive in their setting we combine a suitable, age appropriate curriculum alongside nurture, care and fairness. As adults we want the children to feel a love of learning and we show this through the ways in which we interact with them and all those around us.

Are you focused, committed and passionate about the pupils in your care?

If you think you can join us on our journey then please come and join our happy, committed team, because our children deserve the best!

We are looking for someone who has:

- excellent EYFS/KS1 teaching skills and high expectations for all our children.

- good knowledge and experience of working within a curriculum designed to meet the needs of our aged children. (EYFS and KS1)
- excellent interpersonal and communication skills and the ability to plan and work within a team.
- an interest in working within a creative and innovative curriculum.
- the belief in the potential of every child, including those with additional needs.
- the ability to work closely with colleagues and also within a large team.

We can offer:

- excellent support throughout the school.
- the benefits of working in a strong, supportive team in a great working environment.
- the opportunity to contribute towards the delivery of a creative and stimulating curriculum.
- a well-established, resourced and organised school.
- wonderful children and supportive parents.

Subject leadership opportunities may also exist for suitably experienced candidates.

At Churchfields Infants' School we are committed to the promotion of safety and welfare of all children and young people and expect all staff to share this commitment. The successful applicant will need to undertake a DBS check. References will be taken up prior to interview.

For further information about our school, please see our website or call the school for more details about the role. If you share our ethos and think that you have what it takes to be part of our team, we would very much like to hear from you.

Visits are warmly welcomed.

Completed applications should be returned to the school at
